Providing knowledgeable and professional staff for IT and software development departments across the United States, this successful placement company earned over $23MM in 2017 alone! Working with a diverse client base, employees work in areas such as health care, hospitality, government, and retail. Placing over 500 individuals last year, this in-demand service is managed from Central Illinois.

Contracted placements are typically over one year or longer and clients often request 5-10 placements at a time. Employees relocate to the business location and fully integrate into the technology team on site. This business also works with H1B visa recipients to place highly-trained individuals into U.S. companies. Enticing employees to temporary contracted positions, this business offers health, dental, vision, and life insurance benefits. Though this company carries workers compensation, they have not had a claim as of October 2018.

Operating from a building that is available for continued lease, it may also potentially be available for sale outside the sale of the business. The current owner is fully involved in the day-to-day operations, but the company runs well without daily oversight.
