Strategic acquisition opportunity for the packaged foods industry!

A rare opportunity to acquire a 90-year-old fruit processing manufacturer with its own recognized brand distributed in top national grocery chains.

The company specializes in manufacturing fruit-based products for its 3 owned brands, as well as 8 other private label brands for key customers. The firm is certified organic and offers organic product lines, in addition to non-organic products lines. A market leader in its region, the company has distribution in seven Western U.S. states.

With its commitment to excellence, the company uses fine ingredients, state-of-the-art equipment, and maintains robust quality assurance inspections. This company is ideal for a buyer already in the packaged foods industry, specifically in the fruit-based products market.

This company will need to be relocated upon the sale; therefore, a buyer with an existing operation can greatly benefit by adding this company's brands to its existing product offerings. Inventory is not included in the asking price.

Buyer will need to purchase inventory in addition to the asking price. Average inventory levels are approximately $2.1M.
