This fine establishment is a specialty trade contractor offering new construction plumbing for residential and commercial applications.

The company's primary services include installations in single family homes and multi-unit complexes. The company operates from an 11,000 square-foot facility, which is owned with an option to lease or purchase additionally.

This highly profitable business has a valuable track record of maintaining strong relationships with repeat customers, which in turn, reflects positively on its discretionary earnings, and EBITDA. For over eleven years, the company has been increasing revenues – with an 82% increase over the past four years alone due to a booming economic climate in the area, backed by the company's focus on maintaining and attaining relationships with growing general contracting clients.

With a large customer base, streamlined operational aspects, and solid reputation, the company continues to grow year after year nearly automatically without day to day oversight from ownership due to the highly trained staff of experienced team members.
