This 35-year-established company has a strong reputation with municipalities in the DFW market and specializes in supporting infrastructure lighting.

Each municipality signs several yearlong contracts for service, maintenance and installation. Since 90% of all electric work is done for municipalities, this creates a mostly recession proof business that the new owner can benefit from.

Since 2007, this niche business has been working on TX Dot infrastructure lighting ranging from Street lights to traffic signals. Growth opportunities available with this business include expanding to additional municipalities and incorporating more commercial electrical accounts.

Municipalities have long term contracts in place and represents over 90% of the revenue making this business niche, niche, niche and sustainable.

This company has all the infrastructure needed to grow provided new owner can source additional qualified employees.
