Situated within a robust market of the Midwest of the US, this full-services specialty commercial facility renovation and supply company specializes in the restoration of public and commercial aquatic facilities and also provides nationwide distribution of related materials, parts and chemicals.

Since 1993, business mainly ships regionally, while also providing trainer-certified commercial education seminars.

Extended employee transition periods can be negotiated, as new management adapts to and continues company operations alongside a skilled team of (36) nonunion employees with excellent field experience.

With workers agreeing to remain on board and take on additional duties if needed, a network buyer can further business growth by expanding service and distribution areas.
