A fast-growing Home and Commercial Elevator services company primarily completing installations for existing and new construction applications. All infrastructure including their specialty milling equipment is in place along with a large fleet of trucks to support expansion.

Company also services many different brands of elevators in addition to manufacturing, milling and assembling their own hardware parts with their new cutting-edge technology machines.

Current growth is tied to in-home elevator installs and services demand at a very reasonable price. They currently lead this elevator sector primarily on the East Coast with significant growth potential within other USA markets.

Some analysts predict over 300% growth in this area and this company is prepared to dominate this section of growth.
