Management will Stay

This Company was founded in 2012 by its two current owners. The company was started with just five trucks and has grown into an operation with over 100 trucks in 2021.

They provide transportation, warehousing, and logistics services nationwide to all 48 continental US states, with a strong local & regional presence. They specialize in providing freight hauling services for dry and refrigerated goods for full and partial loads. They primarily work with large freight brokerage companies to receive their loads.

They operate with very low customer concentration as no customer represents over 11% of their annual sales.

Business operations are conducted in a leased warehouse and office space in a combined 3,500 sq. ft. facility. The day-to-day operations & overall management of the company is handled by the two owners.

In addition, the company is equipped with an experienced & tenured team of employees, dispatchers, and drivers to help run the operations. This company presents strong opportunities for continued & accelerated growth into the future.
