MANUFACTURER / CORPORATE & COLLEGIATE APPAREL Midwest USA

Sales Revenue: $59,990,006

Cash Flow: $3,329,997

Asking Price: $16,500,000

A contract manufacturing company with all related support resources in place to maintain and grow their own apparel brand within various targeted markets.

Corporate staff handles all sales, design, and order management; their (85) employee team in Vietnam is used solely for the production & manufacturing side of the business.

With their own brand already well-established, they are able to act as an official outfitter / sponsor for their customers.

Company currently is licensed with (18) colleges/universities in the U.S., enabling them to manufacture their brand with the university's logo.

The Education market currently represents approximately 10% of their total revenues, while the other 90% is essentially through large specialty product distributors.

The company is also on the approved vendor list for one of the biggest medical supply firms in the U.S. that is the official supplier for 60% of all hospitals & clinics. This gives them incredible exposure to their customer base for work on out of contract products (uniforms and other wearables).

The average order $ value approximates $3K-$4K and the average length of time from order entry to shipment is 55-65 days.

The current owner offers management support and is willing to stay on board for 1-2 years to ensure a smooth transition.

Priced at $16,500,000, this company has the potential to grow ten-fold with a potential buyer's use of improved marketing, logistics and manufacturing expertise.
